THE TARIFF DISCUSSION.

Southern Democrats Vote For the Rice Schedule.

A LIVELY SIDE DISCUSSION.

On the Omission of a Word From the Chicago Platform.

TARIFF FOR REVENUE "ONLY."

Washington, June 9.—Consideration of the tariff bill was resumed in the senate at 12:15 p. m. No mention was made as to the time of taking up the sugar schedule, and the debate proceeded on the agricultural schedule.

On the rice paragraph, Mr. Allison, in charge of the bill, withdrew the committee amendments reducing the house rates, thus leaving the house rates stand.

Mr. Mills (Texas), moved to strike out the entire rice paragraph and substitute a new one, placing a duty of 40 per cent. ad valorem on all grades of rice. Rejected; yeas, 19; nays, 40.

Five Democrats, Bacon, Clay, McNary, McLaughlin and Tillman, and four Populists, Allen, Butler, Heidfeld and Stewart, voted with the Republicans in the negative. The rice paragraph was then agreed to as it came from the House.

Rye and rye flour were agreed to as reported.

Paragraph 231 on tapoca had been struck out by the Senate.

On the question of agreeing on this change Mr. Rawlins (I. Ind.) took the floor to answer Mr. Vest's statement yesterday that a "new evangel" of Democratic doctrine was being proclaimed by certain Democratic Senators. Mr. Rawlins said he had been a member of the committee on resolutions and platform at the Chicago convention, presenting that tariff clause that had been under discussion. It was on his motion it was agreed to.

Mr. Lindsay (Kentucky), platform in hand, interrupted to ask Mr. Rawlins, since he presented the tariff clause, why the good old Democratic word "only" after "tariff for revenue" came to be omitted. Was it an intentional omission, Mr. Lindsay asked.

"I think not," responded Mr. Rawlins.

"I can throw some light on that subject," said Mr. Tillman, who was also a member of the Committee on Platform at the Chicago convention. "It was omitted purposely after discussion."

Mr. Rawlins reviewed the course of the Democratic party in the early tariff legislation. The essential principle of this was that all burdens and benefits should be borne equally. This was no new evangel, no vile reptile or rattlesnake, as Mr. Vest had characterized it, and there was no need of any Democratic Senator invoking the Almighty against such doctrine. It came to Democratic Senators pure and unadorned from Democratic fathers and he would support it.

Mr. Mills (Dem., Tex.) spoke on the general features of the bill. For two months, he said, the congressional committees had sought to adjust and readjust again the tariff law, in the interest of a monstrous trust fund which this bill is intended to raise. He came, he said, to speak for the "forgotten man," the taxpayer, from whose labor and sweat was to be wrung by legislative rapine this vast fund for distribution among favored beneficiaries. There was a bill of confiscation, he declared, proposing to take the property of those who were not favored, the "forgotten man," who is laboring in the shops and fields. And yet, when an explanation was asked for the exorbitant rates of this bill, no answer was given, save: "What are you going to do about it?" Mr. Mills warned those on the other side of the chamber to remember that biblical injunction: "For all these things God will bring you into judgment."

The process of framing this bill proceeded against the fundamental principle of the Anglo-Saxon doctrine, that every man shall have a hearing. But there was a tribunal whose doors always stood open, and before that tribunal the projectors of this bill would be summoned. In 1890 a similar act had fallen like the subonic plague on the country and the tribunal of the people had put the Republican party in quarantine.

Mr. Mills referred to the efforts at past Democratic National Conventions to lead it away from its fundamental opposition to a protective tariff and to make it "walk blindfolded into the Republican party as the advocate of class legislation." He spoke of the contest in the Democratic National Convention of 1892, over an unequivocal Democratic declaration on the tariff. Turning to the Democratic Senators who had voted yesterday for a duty on cotton, Mr. Mills showed how the delegation, Georgia, South Carolina and Utah, had supported unequivocal declarations in national conventions against a protective tariff.

THE AND THEIR AMENDMENTS.

Will Be Withdrawn Owing to Strong Opposition Against Them.

Washington, June 9.—The Republican members of the finance committee will withdraw the amendments for an additional tax on beer and for the duty of ten cents a pound on tea. In explanation of this a member of the finance committee said the pressure for withdrawal of these amendments has been very great, and that many Republican senators have made decided stands against them. The formal action of the committee on the subject has not been taken, but the determination has been reached. The members of the committee are still in doubt as to what shall be done with increases on tobacco in the internal revenue part of the bill, but there has been great pressure to have these taxes reduced. The question of revenue is giving the committee considerable concern, and if there should be a withdrawal of the increases on tobacco as well as those on beer and tea the bill would not meet the needs of the Government as a revenue producer. For this reason it has been practically determined to make a bank check stamp tax, and the question of additional revenue by means of a system of stamp taxes on beer has been under consideration. The committee is considering these questions and endeavoring to meet them as they proceed.

ROW AT EDDYVILLE.

Clerk Canfield Refuses to Step Down and Out.

Warden Happy Issues Orders To Lock Him Out of the Prison.

Eddyville, June 9.—(Special to the Courier-Journal.)—J. M. Tinsley, the new clerk at the branch prison, came here yesterday from Frankfort in company with Inspector Lester. Mr. Lester brought with him what purported to be a copy of the record of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners in removing Canfield, the former clerk, and electing Tinsley to succeed him. This record was signed only by Mr. Long, State Treasurer, and members of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners. Mr. Lester presented the papers to Canfield and made in the name of Tinsley a final demand for the surrender of the office, books, papers, etc., with which Canfield had been entrusted.

Warden Happy doubted the legality of the authority brought by the inspector, and declined to take forcible possession of the clerk's office until he could be assured from Frankfort that the record was all right.

Secretary Finley wired Warden Happy today that the records were all right, and that papers properly signed by Auditor Stone as Secretary of the Board of Sinking Fund Commissioners had been forwarded to him by mail. On receipt of this message Warden Happy issued orders to his guards to lock Canfield out of the prison and not to permit him to enter it again.

Tinsley will take charge of the clerk's office to-morrow morning. There may be further trouble to-morrow. Canfield has possession of all the keys to the desks and the combination to the safe, but Capt. Happy is determined to oust him.

A WASHINGTON TRAGEDY.

Italian Shot Another's Wife and Then Killed Himself.

Washington, June 9.—A tragedy, in which the details were almost precisely similar to those of the Barber suicide and attempted murder, occurred this morning at 820 Fourteenth street, the home of Cherubino Giuliani an Italian fruit vendor. About 8 o'clock Teopico Ferrari, father shooting and stabbing in the neck Mrs. Giuliani, shot himself through the head and died almost instantly. The woman was taken to the Emergency Hospital, where it is thought she may recover, though her first action upon arriving there was to call for a priest. From whom she received the last sacraments.

Teopico Ferrari was about twenty-eight years old, and had been paying so much attention to Mrs. Giuliani, who is thirty-two, that he made himself offensive to both herself and her husband, and had been frequently warned not to visit Giuliani's home.

This morning, the husband having gone to market, Ferrari walked through Giuliani's fruit store to the back yard where Mrs. Giuliani was hanging clothes on the line and made a furious assault upon her, stabbing her in the neck with a poniard and then shooting her. He then turned the revolver upon himself, and the bullet lodged in the brain, causing almost instant death.

Frankfort, June 10.—A strong effort will be made to induce President McKinley to spend a night here on his way to Louisville from the exposition. Strong hopes are entertained that the effort will succeed and preparations are being made for his entertainment in the event of his acceptance of the hospitality tendered.

DISASTROUS WRECK.

Rear End Collision on the Illinois Central at Bradford, Tenn.

FIVE MEN BADLY HURT.

Plague and Famine Devastating Portions of China.

THEODORE DURRANT GETS A REPRIEVE.

There was a destructive and fatal wreck at Bradford, Tenn., today on the Illinois Central railroad.

It was a rear-end collision of two freight trains. Five men were buried under the stack of burning cars, and three trainmen were fatally hurt, and three others seriously mangled.

Bradford is near Russell, Tenn., a small station on the Cairo and Jackson, Tenn., division, and is just above Milan.

It is not on this division, and consequently little was known of it by local dispatchers.

PLAGUE IN CHINA.

Combined with Famine It Is Killing Thousands.

Hong Kong, June 10.—A large district in the interior plague and famine are raging, according to news received here and thousands are dying as a result.

DURRANT GETS A REPRIEVE.

His Execution Deferred Until July 10.

San Francisco, June 10.—To the surprise of everybody, even of Durrant himself, the attorneys of Theodore Durrant have succeeded in getting a reprieve for him till July 10 next. Whether the reprieve betokens a possible commutation of sentence is a question that is agitating the public mind.

WILL NOT ACCEPT.

Gen. Cox Does Not Want to Be Minister to Spain.

Cincinnati, O., June 9.—A reporter asked Gen. Jacob D. Cox tonight and asked him: "Are you going to accept the offer of appointment as Minister from the United States to Spain?"

Gen. Cox answered promptly: "I am not."

He then stated that he had received no official notice of this offer, but had been semi-officially informed that the offer would be made if he desired the place. Through this intermediary he thanked President McKinley for the compliment and gave his reasons for declining. His principal reasons are that he has for several years been engaged in literary work, that will take several years to complete, and he can not afford to abandon it. Furthermore, the position offered imposes great responsibility and labor at this time. But this is a minor reason. Gen. Cox has been offered a professorship in the law department of Cincinnati University, which he will decline for the same chief reasons.

RITTER RETURNS.

Carried Back to Chicago to Stand Trial.

Detective Elliott Thinks He Will Be Given About Fifteen Years.

It is R. Ritter, the fugitive ex-convict wanted at Chicago, was taken home today by Detective D. H. Elliott, of the Chicago force. Ritter, who protests his innocence, is denounced by the detective as one of the shrewdest and most unscrupulous thieves in America. He is wanted for stealing money, household goods and other things from Mrs. Eliza Thomas, a widow, even going so far as to have all her household goods hauled off while she was away from home. This was in 1895, and Ritter left on June 5th of that year, and had never been heard of by the Chicago authorities until his arrest here. The woman who came here with him is his wife, and to her is charged his downfall.

Ritter is said to be wanted at about a dozen other places in Illinois, but the detective thinks he will get a term of about fifteen years at Chicago.

Detective Elliott left at noon with Ritter. Ritter was pretty sore at everybody, especially the newspapers. He does not seem to resent what has been said about him as much as what has been said about his wife. He says the papers have not had a dozen words to say about him that were true, but the detective, who is perhaps as reliable, says differently.

Detective Elliott was vastly pleased with the treatment accorded him by the officers of Paducah. He said he was told before he came here that Paducah was uncivilized and a decent place to eat and sleep could not be found. He was agreeably surprised. Marshal Collins donned his Sunday attire and showed the Illinois officer all over the city. When he left he had very pleasant memories of his brief stay, and several bottles of as fine samples of Kentucky's product as could be found.

MOONSHINERS RETREAT.

Visited By Revenue Officer Ferguson and Others.

District Revenue Collector Mac Ferguson, Ganger Kesterson, of the city; Burton, of Lebanon; Dellaven, of Owensboro, and Dyer, of Henderson, went down into Calloway county a day or two since to break up an illicit still operated by a man named Green.

The government officers had the promise of a guide, but he failed to show up. They then started out themselves, and finally located the "worm," in a cave on Blood river, three miles from the village of Faxon. It, together with about twenty tubs and 2500 gallons of mash, were destroyed.

Green was warned by his wife in time to escape. The officers reached the city last night.

I. C. IMPROVEMENTS.

Work Is Being Pushed Rapidly By the Contractors.

Illinois Central Stock-Brakeman Hurt Yesterday.

The work on the Illinois Central river front improvements is being pushed rapidly, but as yet the scrapers ordered by contractors Halloran and Barnes, which have been eight days on the road, have not arrived.

The dirt of which the road bed is being built is being taken from the ground only a few feet away at the rate of several hundred square yards a day. The contract calls for a completion in thirty days.

Jerry Bell, a colored brakeman on gravel train No. 600, was painfully injured at Gravel Switch yesterday afternoon by being "whipped" by the engine. His head was badly hurt, and he was brought here on No. 221 for repairs.

Illinois Central stock is quoted to employees during the present month at $97 per share.

This morning a gang of carpenters who have been at work on the depot at Dawson arrived to work on the shop improvements. It is expected that the force will reach thirty or more.

STABBING AFFRAY.

A Murray Tough Cuts a Railroad Man.

Injuries Fatal, and the Would-Be Murderer a Fugitive.

Walter Wolfe, a marble cutter, of Murray, and a notorious tough, stabbed Bob Shennell, a railroad man well known in Murray, while drunk last night.

Particulars are meagre, but it is said that today Shennell's wounds are fatal, and officers are hot after the would be assassin, who escaped.

TOWN MARSHAL ARRESTED.

But Marshal Grimes Was Straightway Acquitted.

Father of the Wounded Boy Swore Out a Warrant at Metropolis.

Town Marshal Grimes, of Brooklyn, Ill., was yesterday afternoon arrested at Brooklyn by Constable Noah Critchlow, of Metropolis, on a charge of malicious shooting.

The charge was preferred by the father of young Horace Lander, the darkey who was shot twice the day before by the marshal while trying to escape.

The officer was taken to Metropolis, and at once accorded a preliminary hearing, and promptly acquitted. It was conclusively shown that the shooting was done by the marshal in the discharge of his duty.

MISSING NOTES.

Justice Little Finds $800 Worth of Good Ones.

They Were Lost By Attorney Sam Crossland, of Mayfield.

Justice J. H. Little this morning found the book containing over $800 in notes lost here last week by Attorney Sam Crossland, of Mayfield.

Mr. Crossland lost them somewhere in the city and every effort to find them was futile. Justice Little found them in the alley back of his residence, 901 Clark street, where they were evidently thrown by some one who either found them and believed them worthless, or else stole them and came to the same conclusion.

UNLUCKY LIGHTFOOT

Hell For Murder in Golconda, Illinois.

HIS BOND FIXED AT $6,000.

The Preliminary Trial Lasted Several Days, and He Gave Bond.

MANY BELIEVE HIM INNOCENT.

Lightfoot's case at Golconda, Pope county, Ill., begins to look more serious for him. As will no doubt be recalled, last week he was arrested on a charge of murdering in cold blood his brother-in-law, Reese Roberts, a wealthy cattle buyer, who was shot down near the house with Lightfoot, while the two were returning from the spring.

Two other men were arrested, but they were both released, and Lightfoot's incarceration followed. The general opinion is that he alone is guilty, and yet he has a great many friends who believe him innocent, and will stand by him and see him out of his trouble.

The preliminary trial lasted several days, and Lightfoot was held to answer, his bond being fixed at $6,000. After some difficulty he succeeded in executing this bond, but it is said he had to mortgage his farm to do it.

Mrs. Roberts, wife of the murdered man, was an attendant at the trial, and according to a drummer on board the packet this morning was at the hotel laughing over the case and saying she was for the man who committed the deed.

The final trial will probably come up the latter portion of this month, an adjourned session of the court to begin on June 28th.

A COLLISION.

A Grand Rivers Mule Attempts a Herculean Task.

The vestibule from Louisville rolled into the union depot at noon today, and the steps were knocked off by a mule.

The mule is blind and was in a cut when the train came thundering along. He stood there and meditated a moment or two, and as the sound increased in volume, the beast decided that he would let it pass, and retired to a respectful distance from the track just in time to keep from being struck by the locomotive. He congratulated himself too soon, however, and shaking one ear to dislodge a fly, he backed a foot or two and had the satisfaction of feeling in the region of the South Pole a gentle tap, a tap that turned him upside down for the time being, and at the same instant induced the steps to disengage themselves from the train and remain to keep him company.

Conductor O'Bryan says the last he saw of his muleship he was standing on the track apparently unharmed, kicking heroically at the hind end of the receding sleeper.

DIED IN JAIL.

Unfortunate Woman of Calloway Perished in Prison.

Alice Bradley, in jail charged with infanticide, died Monday at Murray. She had been ill since her arrest, and all that the doctor could do failed to save her life. A long term of imprisonment most probably awaited her.

The deceased was the proud possessor of two coffins before she was buried. The county purchased one, but her relatives did not think it good enough for her and ordered another. The undertaker refused to take back the one furnished by the county as it had been used to some extent.

A PETITION.

To Ask Congress for a River Appropriation.

Mr. E. B. Sheerer, of New Liberty, Ill., arrived here this morning. He signified his intention of returning to Paducah in a few days to circulate a petition asking congress to make an appropriation to conduct the work necessary to stop the caving in of the river bank on the Ohio above here a few miles. The people of his place have become alarmed and realize that immediate steps must be taken to save their property.

WRITTEN AT RANDOM.
Ed. Harass, a motorman on the Peoples line, although it may not generally be known, is a ball player of no mean ability. In fact there was a time, and not so very long ago,
when his fame as a short stop exceeded further than a few miles. He has played in several clubs in the upper part of the state, particularly in Central City. Col. Fred Long, the building and loan man, was in the same club with Harass and Mr. Ambrose Mercer, the well known engineer, used to be one of the best known catchers in that section of the country.

Col. Fred Long is now an enthusiastic "fan," but has never played since he had his eye mistaken for a backstop a few years ago.

The Clear Spring correspondent of the "Mayfield Monitor" says:
A show was here the other day
that had not been killed—a "swift duck" from Clarksville, Tenn., representing the Union Tobacco Warehouse, of that city. He seemed to think that our little burg needed a coat of red and took it upon himself to give it a painting, which he did in an unsatisfactory manner. After illustrating the good points of the Clarksville tobacco market, he started out to repeat the performance at Ragsdale, our neighboring village.
All went well until he started to pass
the residence of Mr. W. A. Carey.
Mr. C. keeps his bees in the front yard, just a few steps from the road.
When the duck went to pass he drove his buggy a little too close to the fence, according to the bees' ideas of measurement, and they all flew out and soon had the young duck covered, to say nothing of his horse. It did not take long to remind him that he had business elsewhere. Thus ended the show that had not been advertised.

A historic house, and the oldest dwelling in Paducah, is to be torn down by the Illinois Central in a short time. This is the dilapidated old frame near First and Court streets that has stood a test of time and the elements for nearly half a century, it is said.

It was built by Mr. Valentine Lewen, father of the Owen Bros., and several of the other aristocratic families lived in it before the locality became notorious, and the structure uninhabitable. It was in this same house years ago, that H. Clay Kane, the unfortunate Tennesseean, was married. The place is now a refuge for rats and vermin, and stands in its dilapidated glory
a relic of better days,
and one of the oldest landmarks in western Kentucky. It now stands on the railroad company's ground,
and will be removed to make room
for a more worthy edifice.

The schemes that old and young alike resort to in order that they may witness a game of ball without paying are as varied as the ingenu-ities. Some prefer themselves in trees, some on house tops, others look through the fence while the younger ones hug about the inclosure waiting for a foul ball, over which they often fight to see who shall deliver it to the game keeper and be admitted free. But one man has employed the most unique method of all. Shortly before the game begins he drives up in a wagon provided with high seats that bring the occupants' heads up above the fence, and enable them to witness the game as well as if they were holding down a fifty-cent seat in the grand stand. It is said that the genius who devised this plan realizes quite a goodly sum returning on "pew" to some of the unfortunate gamblers whose depleted purses would enable them to purchase
a ticket only at less than half price.
After the game the patrons of this grand stand are carried back to town
for nothing.

"Jim Lang's nomination played
h—l in Woodville section," remarked
a man on market this morning.
"How's that?" spoke up somebody else.

"Well," was the reply, "You know every fall Jimmie goes out there hunting, and generally stops
with Tobe Scott."

He is pretty popular with a whole lot of people, and they were naturally very much interested in the race.

DRIFTWOOD
Saved From the Waters, Corralled on the Levee.
The Dick Fowler was away to Cairo this morning as usual.

The local inspectors, Messrs.
Wyatt and Green, will arrive in the city today from Nashville to inspect some of the harbor boats.

The Albia from the Mississippi river passed up the Tennessee river last night at 8 o'clock after a tow of tugs.

yesterday for Nashville to attend the Centennial.

This morning was the dulllest one on the levee this week. There was very little business transacted in that vicinity and the packets were also doing very light business.

The towboat Charley McDonald
passed up last night for Cincinnati.
She had considerable trouble in getting her tow over Cottonwood bar, owing to the water being so low at that point.

The John S. Hopkins was in from Evansville on time this morning, notwithstanding the shallow water between this point and the Hoosier city.
She left on her return to Evansville
at 10 a. m., carrying the United States mail and a good freight list.

The towboat Dolphin passed out of Tennessee river this morning with a big tow of cross ties.

The Ashland City will arrive here
this afternoon out of the Tennessee and leaves on her return up that stream to Danville tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The H. W. Butteroff, owing to heavy fog and low water, was several hours behind time when she arrived
out of the Tennessee river yesterday afternoon. She left at 4 o'clock for Nashville with a fair cargo of freight,
besides a number of tourist trip
excursionists.

Capt. James P. Pratt's recent purchase, the steamer Eureka, which he has recently put under extensive repairs will be inspected by the inspectors, Messrs. Wyatt and Green today. The harbor boat Penguin will also undergo her annual test.

Urging to low water the big harbor
tug Ida has been tied up and her sister the light draught stern wheeler
Mary S. has been brought out in her stead.

The Clyde will arrive here out of the Tennessee river tonight. She leaves over here until Saturday, when she leaves on her return up the Tennessee to Florence and all points.

The big Mayflower is due here tomorrow from St. Louis en route by the Tennessee river.

The City of Paducah leaves St.
Louis this afternoon for Tennessee river points.

NASHVILLE PLAYED WELL.

Stacked up Eight Runs.

PADUCAH LEADING TODAY IN FOUR INNINGS

Nashville had the home boys hustling for awhile yesterday
and the game was quite exciting until the eighth inning, when Paducah stacked up four runs and was an easy winner.

Pettie, the Nashville star pitcher,
and Dowling, Paducah's pet southpaw, with Belt and Stanton to backstop, pitched the game. Hits in profusion were made off of both, but the hitting was good.

Dowling brought down the rosters
when he flew out a two bagger with two men on base and two men out, bringing in two men, and being followed by two more. There was more goin' in yesterday's game than that of the day before, but still there was not enough.

Umpire Ed Boland yesterday
signed with the Nashville team, and will, beginning tomorrow, play first base. The games scheduled for Nashville tomorrow have been transferred to Evansville, and will be played there instead.

Boland has been in some of the biggest leagues in the country, having at one time been a catcher of no little repute. He threw his arm out of joint in 1890, however, and was disabled for some time. He has also played in the far West.

For Sale.
At the Sec. office old papers, nice and clean, just the thing to put under carpets and on shelves. 25 cents per hundred.
